Need to learn more about U.S. copyright law but never seem to have the time to attend a course? With Copyrightlaw.com, FLICC is pleased to offer an online course on copyright law. The course will cover

- history of U.S. copyright law
- copyright protection and protected works
- copyright registration and ownership
- rights protection and limitations
- rights exploitation and violations
- remedies for violations
- using copyright materials
- digital copyright law

How does this online course work? Twice a week, beginning Monday, September 27, 2004, you will receive e-lessons for 8 weeks (a total of 16 sessions) and a self-marking quiz.

Lesley Ellen Harris, author of several books on copyright including Digital Licensing: A Practical Guide for Librarians, is the developer and proctor for this course. She has also developed email tutorials on digital licensing for the American Library Association and an international version on Canadian copyright law. For more information on Harris, visit her Web site at <http://www.copyrightlaws.com>.
